NO. 15

A NEW DIVISION.

The Voting Precincts as Re-arranged by the County Judge.

To the Voters of Franklin county:
The first arrangement of voting precincts under the new election law was necessarily experimental; and although made after mature consultation with the magisterial district commissioners, I regret to say it has not proven entirely satisfactory.

The law requires that there shall be as nearly as practicable not less than three hundred nor more than three hundred and fifty voters in a precinct, and that in making said precincts no magisterial district line shall be crossed. In the arrangement made immediately after the law went into effect, absolute conformance to its provisions was undertaken and the consequence has been a falling off in the voting strength of our county, owing to the great distance some voters were required to travel.

At the recent November election it was disclosed that in the Market house and Gas-house precincts there were two many voters, and that a change in said precincts was necessary. In other precincts changes were desirable also. It gives me pleasure, therefore, to submit the following arrangement, with the hope that it may prove reasonably satisfactory.

Respectfully,
B. G. WILLIAMS,
County Judge.

Magisterial District No. 1, of Franklin county, Kentucky, or the city of Frankfort, is divided into voting precincts as follows:

All that portion of South Frankfort east of Shelby street to be designated as Precinct No. 1 and the voting place to be at Vogler's store. All that portion of South Frankfort west of Shelby street to be designated as Precinct No. 2, voting place to be at bridge toll-house.

All that portion of North Frankfort south of the Versailles turnpike and Main street as far as St. Clair; thence north on St. Clair street to Broadway; thence west on Broadway to the Kentucky river; to be designated as Precinct No. 3, and the voting place to be at the court-house. All that portion of North Frankfort north of the Versailles turnpike and east of High street to Holmes, and with Holmes street to the Franklin and Owen turnpikes; thence with the same to the city limits line, and with the same to the Versailles pike, to be designated as Precinct No. 4 and the voting place to be at the intersection of Broadway and High street.

All that portion of North Frankfort, beginning with the intersection of Main and High streets; thence with High to Holmes; thence with Holmes to the Owen turnpike; thence with the same to the city limits line; thence westward with the same until it intersects the center line of St. Clair street produced; thence with the same to its intersection with Main street; thence with the same to the beginning, to be designated as Precinct No. 5, and the voting place to be at the Market-house.

All that portion of North Frankfort west of St. Clair, extending from Broadway until the center line of St. Clair intersects the center line of Hill street; thence with the same to the beginning, to be designated as Precinct No. 6, and the voting place to be at the Gas-house.

It's a Mistake

No neglect caring for a cough or cold. Every time you cough you increase the trouble and soon an inflammation is started that in a short time is difficult to control. Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure has such a magic effect upon a cough, allaying all irritation so quickly, that every person in the land should always have a bottle of this wonderful medicine on hand to begin taking at once upon the first appearance of a cold. It costs only 25c and 50c a bottle at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

It's a plan that proves something, but only the makers of Dr. Farrow's Golden Medical Discovery can give you what you expect, or how to pay. If, in any case, their remedy fails to benefit or cure you, they'll return the money. That proves, for one thing, that it's pretty sure to do all that's claimed for it. And that's the claim is, that it cures or disorders caused by a torpid liver or impure blood are cured by it. For all the many forms of Scrofula, and for the most obstinate Skin and Scalp Diseases, Salt-rheum, Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, and all other skin ailments, it is an unequalled and unfailing remedy. It proves that the "Discovery" is the best blood purifier and skin cure ever used on man, woman, or child, and the cheapest, for you pay only for the good you get. And it cures, that nothing else, offered in its place by the dealer, can be just as good. Sold by dealers in medicines the world over.

Planned to Escape.

Woodford Hughes and James Ratcliffe, both of whom are confined in jail upon a charge of robbery, had planned to make their escape, but their little scheme was thwarted by the watchful eye of Uncle Minus Williams, the jailer. Seeing that they were plotting some devilment on Sunday he caused them and their cells to be searched, when a long rope made from the sheets of his bed, torn in strips and plaited, was found in the possession of Hughes—part on his person, concealed under his shirt, and the balance in the mattress of his bed, which had been cut open—and a knife made from a saw was taken from Ratcliffe. It was their intention to get out on the roof through the trap door opening into a room in the third story where prisoners are allowed to remain during the day, then lower themselves to the ground with the rope. Or, failing in this, the bars of a window were to be cut with the saw and through the opening made to reach the ground by means of the rope. They have now been separated and placed where they would find it rather hard work cutting their way out even if they had the tools to do it with.

A Great Improvement.

One of the greatest improvements made by the recent City Council was the substitution of electric for gas light upon the streets, without increased expense. The lights were turned on for the first time Saturday night and illuminated the streets beautifully. As is the case with almost all new machinery, when first started, everything did not work as smooth as it might, and after running Saturday and Sunday nights the lights were turned off until Wednesday, by which time everything was gotten into good shape and the lamps lighted again, much to the delight of our people, for when once accustomed to electric light, to return to gas is like going back to the tallow dips of our fathers.

All honor to the Council who gave us this and many other good things—the best Council we have had in years. They started the old town up grade, and let us hope that those who are to come after will keep her going in the same direction.

For sore throat there is nothing better than a flannel bandage dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will nearly always effect a cure in one night's time. This remedy is also a favorite for rheumatism and has cured many very severe cases. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Special Term.

Judge Jas. E. Cantrill will convene the Franklin Circuit Court in special term on Monday next to hear the injunction cases growing out of the recent city election, and upon his decision rests who will be the Board of Common Council for the city of Frankfort. When that decision is rendered the muddle we have gotten into will be straightened out so far as the council is concerned, and then let us hope peace will reign.

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 16, 1898.

For Tate's Pardon.

A petition, asking Governor Brown to pardon James W. Tate, the late State Treasurer, has been in circulation in this and adjoining counties for the past week and has been numerously signed—over four hundred persons having attached their names in this city alone.

The petition states that Tate has already suffered much by voluntary banishment, even if he is guilty; that he has expiated what ever misdeeds in this particular he may have heedlessly committed; that there is reason to believe Tate was more sinned against than sinful; that if he took any of the public funds improperly it was from an excessive amiability and disinclination to say no to his friends than through any premeditated desire to defraud the State.

The Publication to Continue.

The Louisville Times announces that the publication of the Frankfort Capital will not be discontinued on the first of January as was supposed. When Col. E. Polk Johnson, who has for several years so ably presided at the helm of the paper, retire from the editorial charge about the first of January he will be succeeded by Mr. George L. Willis, at present correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times in this city, and Mr. S. C. Sayres, the present book keeper for the Capital Printing Company, will become business manager of the establishment. We wish the new management success and trust they will have no trouble in guiding their craft into smooth water at all times and under all circumstances.

Trial Postponed.

The County Contesting Board, composed of County Judge Ben G. Williams and Esquires Pat. McDonald and Jos. L. Rodman met on Monday for the purpose of hearing the majority contest of Mr. V. Berberich and Judge Ira Julian. The plaintiff entered an objection to Squire McDonald sitting in the case and it was agreed to send for one of the country magistrates. The further consideration of the matter was then postponed until Tuesday of next week, owing to the illness of Gov. Knott, one of the counsel for the defendant, and the board adjourned until that day at 10 o'clock a. m.

Used at the World's Fair.

The "traveler" which the Construction Company received here on Monday for use in putting up the new St. Clair street bridge is the same used by them in the erection of the intermural electric railway at the World's Fair in Chicago. If it will only get a move on itself and put up the bridge with the same speed and in the substantial manner that they do things in the Windy City our citizens will be more than delighted that it came among us.

THE LAST GAME WON.

Frankfort Defeats Winchester for the Second Time.

The last foot ball game of the season was played at Lake Park between the home boys and the Wesleyan College team, of Winchester, on Monday, and was won by Capt. Swango's men by the score of 10 to 4—a very close game.

The visitors put up a very stiff defensive and offensive game, and on two occasions held their opponents for four downs when they were within five yards of making a touch-down. They lost the game on fumbles, one of which was indirectly and the other directly responsible for the two touch-downs scored by the locals.

The first of these occurred in the first half Wintersmith fell on the ball as it was dropped by the Winchester back, and, after several center plays the ball was passed to him for a run around left end. Guarded by the splendid interference of Swango and the line, he passed the entire Winchester team and made a touch-down, on which Swango failed to kick goal, owing to a head wind which swerved the ball. This was the prettiest play of the game, the distance gained being over fifty yards.

When the first half closed the score was 4 to 0 in our favor, Winchester having the ball near the center line.

Soon after the beginning of the second half, with the ball about thirty yards from Frankfort's goal, the other fumble was made, and VanDerveer secured the ball in exactly the same way he did on Thanksgiving day. Nearly all of the Winchester men being in the scrimmage, Dick had a clear field, and made an easy run of eighty yards for the other touch-down. Swango kicked goal. Score—Frankfort, 10; Winchester, 0.

By a series of short rushes, aided by an allowance of 20 yards for foul-tackling and five yards for off-side play, the visitors then made their only touch down but failed to kick goal owing to the wind. Score—Frankfort, 10; Winchester, 4.

Time was called with the ball dangerously near Winchester's goal line, where by magnificent defensive work they had kept the home boys from again scoring, but had just obtained the ball on four downs when the game ended.

The game was a hard, clean one, and was a pleasant contrast to that with Georgetown in that there was little or no slugging, and no kicking against the decisions of the referee and umpire, Messrs. A. C. Norman and Mac. Blayne. No one was seriously hurt and we are inclined to think the game will live and flourish in spite of the opposition with which it has met in certain quarters.

In all the games played by the home team, outside of a black eye or two and a few scratches, no damage has been done, and even the most carping critics must allow that the young men are the better for the physical training received.

The home team lined up as follows:

Jackson, right end; Longmoor, right tackle; Averill, right guard; South, center; Glore, left guard; Kelly, left tackle; Rodman, left end; Lindsey, quarter-back; VanDerveer, right half-back; Wintersmith, left half-back; Swango full-back and Captain.

Kelly is a member of the Louisville Athletic Club team, but being unacquainted with the signals, could not give as much assistance as his fine individual playing would indicate. The Winchester boys also had an addition from the Central University team, so neither side had any the best of it in this respect.

This is the way the visitors lined up:

A Herald of the Infant Year.

Clip the last thirty years or more from the century, and the segment will represent the term of the unbounded popularity of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The opening of the year 1901 will be signalized by the appearance of a fresh stamp of the century, in which the uses, derivation and action of this world-famous medicine will be lucidly set forth. Everybody should read it. The calendar and astronomical calculations to be found in this brochure are always astonishingly accurate, and the statistics, illustrations, humor and other reading matter rich in interest and full of profit. The Hostetter Company, of Pittsburgh, Pa., publish it themselves. They employ more than sixty hands in the mechanical work, and more than eleven months in the year are consumed in its preparation. It can be obtained, without cost, of all druggists and country dealers, and is printed in English, German, French, Welsh, Norwegian, Swedish, Italian, and so many and Spanish.

Student's Rates.

The Kentucky Midland Railway will sell tickets to all points and return limited to January 11, 1894, at one and one-third fare for the round trip, to students going home for the holidays.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 16, 1893.

Written at the "Look."

I stood on the bank of the river
By the side of the motionless mill,
And the moon rose over the treetops,
From behind the old Fort Hill.
Like a queen she arose in her beauty,
Not a breath, not a sound could be heard,
Not a bird left its roost on the hillside,
Not a leaf in the silence was stirred.
I gazed on the crystal waters,
Where the moon-beams softly played;
Where the face of the queen just arisen,
In a frame of silver was made.
The pools have whispered of it, little,
And said 'twas the nurse of Woe;
But all of my heartaches left me,
And went out with the river's flow.
Like bubbles they floated downward,
Carried on by the gentle tide;
Until lost to my view in the distance,
Like a speck on the ocean wide.
I thought as I looked on the drift-wood,
As it slowly and silently passed;
That such was our life and existence—
In a stream we are helpless and lost.
From out of the darkness we come forth,
And float for awhile in the light;
For only a space we will linger,
Then again we are lost in the night.
As a breath that is blown on the window,
As a spark on a winter's night;
For only a time they are with us,
Then for ever they're lost to our sight.
Still the drift-wood was passing,
And I am now brighter on high;
I prayed for the mind of a poet,
But the answer was only a sigh.

How We Cross the River.

The St. Clair street bridge was closed permanently Wednesday afternoon and the ferry came into constant use. The hours fixed for the ferry are from 5:30 in the morning until 10 at night, between which hours all pedestrians can pass free, but after 10 o'clock p. m. the ferrymen have a right to charge a fee for setting anyone across. A nice wooden walkway has been built up the bank from the ferry to Bridge street on the South Side, part of it being covered so that persons waiting for the ferry in bad weather will be in some measure protected while standing upon the walk. On the north side a shed has been built on the wharf for the protection of those waiting in the rain, with a walk leading from it to the ferry landing. An over-head wire cable has been put up across the river, over which a trolley will run from which a line will be attached to the ferryboat to be used when there is sufficient current in the river to operate it, but when the river is low the old-fashioned "pull" rope will have to be used. This arrangement is rather slow and some delay is necessarily experienced in getting over the river, but all that is necessary is a little patience and a determination to make the best of a condition of things which cannot be avoided.

Hard as Steel.

The iron rods which have held the old St. Clair street bridge together for the past forty-six years have become crystallized with age and are nearly as hard as steel. The discovery was made in cutting one of them at the forge of the Construction Company which is putting up the bridge, Monday, and since then there has been quite a rush for pieces of the iron to preserve as souvenirs of the old structure.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer, in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that State during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day he was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Deaths.

HAYDON—Mr. Fountain T. Haydon, an old and prominent citizen of the Peak's Mill Precinct, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Rev. Geo. W. Hill, at Williams-town, on Thursday. The remains were brought here yesterday and will be buried at Bloomington this morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Haydon and wife had gone to Williamstown to visit their daughter, Mrs. Hill, and were both taken sick about the same time. Mrs. Haydon bring too ill at the time of her husband's death to accompany the remains here.

The deceased was a brother-in-law of Capt. Sam. Sanders, of this city, and Messrs. Jas. T. and Frank Duvall, of this county. Both of the latter gentlemen are at the bedside of their mother, who is very ill at her home in Monterey, Owen county.

The New Cell-house.

S. C. Cryer & Co. are making fine progress with their work on the new cell-house in the penitentiary. They have gotten up to the top of the second story with their brick and stone work. They are executing their work in a very substantial manner, and when completed it will be one of the best jobs ever put up in this part of the country. The new structure will contain four hundred cells, which will give to this penitentiary something over one thousand cells all told.

A Very Good Suggestion.

Editor Roundabout:

We are all aware of the fact that Frankfort and Franklin county are soon to have a new bridge crossing the river and uniting North and South Frankfort as of yore. This magnificent structure should be christened by a test suggested by a merchant of our city, as follows: As soon as the bridge is completed and turned over to the city and county as being finished and opened for travel, the Mayor to appoint the day and date for a holiday, and for each and every delivery wagon and vehicles of all kinds, to load up to their fullest capacity and form in procession, make a grand test and a good christening for the new bridge. Let some of our enterprising business men call a meeting of the manufacture s, business men and all citizens who use vehicles of delivery, huckstering or of pleasure, to meet and determine what will be done in this movement and have one of the largest turnouts we have ever had. We can do it if we commence in time.

Won't some one take hold of this? Meet, organize and appoint your different committees in good time so that we can be in readiness by the time the bridge is completed. Let every vehicle that a horse can be hitched to help make this a grand success, even W. B. Bri gford and his little Geeters.

A MERCHANT.

Why Don't You Stop.

These words are very familiar to our readers, as not a day passes without the report of the sudden death of some prominent citizen. The explanation is "Heart Disease." Therefore beware if you have any of the following symptoms: Short Breath, Pain in Side, Smothering, Spells, Swollen Ankles, Asthmatic Breathing, Weak and Hungry Spells, Tenderness in Shoulder and Arm, Fluttering of Heart or Irregular Pulse. These symptoms mean heart disease. The most reliable remedy is Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which has saved thousands of lives. Book of testimonials free at J. W. Gayle's who also sells the New Heart Cure.

Goosebone Predictions.

Mrs. J. H. Williamson has sent us a goosebone, taken from the breast of the bird which graced her table on Thanksgiving day. The goslin was hatched early in the spring and was eight months old when killed. We are not much of a goosebone interpreter but here is what we understand the bone before us to say: December starts in warm with bad weather overhead, which grows worse until about the first of January, when the ground will freeze and remain frozen the balance of the winter. The coldest weather will be about the middle of January, the spell beginning near the fifth and continuing until the twenty fifth, when it will moderate slightly. February starts in cold and remains so to the end.

Now watch the predictions and see how near correct they are. If they fail it will be the goosebone's fault and not ours, for we don't know anything about it, whereas the bone has quite a rep. as a prognostic tor.

Selling Without License.

Deputy U. S. Marshal A. C. Scott and Mr. Geo. T. Ireland, of Eminence, brought four negroes to this city yesterday morning, charged with violating the Internal Revenue law. Among them was Robert Butler, who was for a time last fall a candidate for Mayor of Eminence. One of the number, Jerry Hoffman, of Croppers, had an examination before U. S. Commissioner W. J. Chinn yesterday and was held in $150 bond to appear at the term of the U. S. Court which convenes in this city Tuesday week, but failing to give bond was sent to jail. The others—Robert Butler, Dick Conner and Phil, Casselman—all of whom are from Eminence, will be tried next week.

Bridge Souvenirs.

Handsome souvenir spoons, with views of the old St. Clair street bridge engraved in the bowl, are on exhibition at the jewelry store of Mrs. M. A. Selbert. There are two views of the old structure—one taken from the south side of the river, showing the Custom House and the spires of the Catholic Church and the Court House in the background, and the other taken from down the river, showing the bridge alone. They are beautifully executed and if you want a handsome reminder of how the old bridge looked before it was dismantled get one before they are all gone.

When on a visit to Iowa, Mr. K. Dalton, Russell county, Kansas, called at the laboratory of Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, to show them his six year old boy, whose life had been saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it having cured him of a very severe attack of croup. Mr. Dalton is certain it saved his boys life and is enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy. For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Council Proceedings.

TUESDAY, DEC. 12, 1893.
Present—President Lewis and all the councilmen except Ellwanger, Miles and Weitzel.
The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Johnson's grocery license on Main street was transferred to Howard & McCoy.

The license of Williams & Hughes, on Broadway, was transferred to Crutcher & Moore.

There being no further business the council adjourned to meet again on the 25th inst.

You Can Get There.

Since the south end of St. Clair street has been so filled up with timber and stone, incident to the building of the new bridge, many customers of Mr. John R. Todd, the confection, seem to be under the impression that his door has been blocked, but such is not the case as the sidewalk is entirely clear and any lady or child can reach his place without the least danger. He is still doing business at the old stand and will be glad to see all who may drop in upon him.

Fail to do Their Duty.

Everybody has at times failed to do their duty towards themselves. Hundreds of lady readers suffer from sick headache, nervousness, sleeplessness and female troubles. Let them follow the example of Mrs. H. Herbrechter, Stevens Point, Wis., who for five years suffered greatly from nervous prostration and sleeplessness, tried physicians and different medicines without success. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine caused sound sleep every night and she is feeling like a new person. Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, Laramie City, Wyoming, who tried all other remedies, declares that after three weeks' use of the Nervine for headache, nervous prostration, etc., she was entirely relieved. Sold by J. W. Gayle. Trial bottle free.

The New Telegraph Office.

The new office room for the Western Union Telegraph Co. in the basement of the Capital Hotel is about completed, and Manager Newton expects to move in about the 20th inst. The place has been handsomely fitted up and will have new furniture, and after it is completed the place will present very much the appearance of a city office.

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

For the Holidays.

The Superior Court adjourned Wednesday and the Court of Appeals will adjourn to-day for the holidays. Both will re-assemble for the January term on Monday, January 1st.

Supper at the Forks.

Postmaster at Mahanok, Neb., writes me as follows: I have taken but one package of your Dr. Hale's Household Tea and it is the first medicine I have found that has done me any good. For 30 years I have been troubled with liver and kidney troubles, growing worse all the time. For the last 10 years I have not been able to do much or any work. I feel dull, sleepy and as though I could not stir. My bowels would not move oftener than once a week. After taking one package I am much better and now can take hold and work. Have a good appetite and bowels regular. For dyspepsia, constipation, all liver and kidney troubles, etc., it has no equal. Only 25c. and 50c. a package at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store. a

Wm. H. Wheeler,

A prominent contractor and builder, of Adams, N. Y., was a great smoker for years. He liked his cigar but did not like the serious throat trouble that began to come upon him in the shape of a bunch or growth. As he expressed it he was afraid he was going to have a Grant throat. At this stage he began using Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, applying it directly to the bunch inside his throat several times each day. A few weeks of this treatment entirely cured the bad throat and Mr. Wheeler states that it worked a most wonderful cure in his case and that he regards Dr. Hale's Household Ointment as the greatest medicine of the 19th century. It cures all inflammation, 25c. and 50c. boxes at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store. a
